SHISHU consent

This call is about the mother's health and her child's health.

Her voice and her answers are shared only with the doctor or health worker (ASHA/ANM) for this visit.

They are not sold.

They are not resold.

They are not used to make another product.

She can refuse. The call does not start unless she agrees.

She can stop during the call.

Lawyers will rewrite this before the pilot.